MARKET PULSE — Weekly Trading Report

Sunday 24 May 2026

OUTLOOK · NEUTRAL-BULLISH

MACRO THEME

NVDA blowout earnings ($81.6B +85% YoY) and US Manufacturing PMI 55.3 (4-year high) drove global risk-on. US30 set a new year high of 50,830. GER40 surged +5% despite Eurozone PMI crashing to 47.5 (29-month low). Gold extends Iran-war ATH correction. FOMC Minutes (Tue May 27) is the dominant near-term catalyst.

OVERVIEW

Global equities absorbed the Moody's US Aa1 downgrade in two sessions and pivoted to NVDA's blowout Q1 FY2027 earnings (Data Center +92% YoY, $80B buyback, 25x dividend hike). US30 printed a new year high of 50,830 intraday Friday; NAS100 sits 197 points below its year high of 29,679. Eurozone Composite PMI collapsed to 47.5 (29-month low) on May 23 PMI Flash — a genuine recession signal being overridden by global momentum. US Composite PMI stable at 51.7; Manufacturing 55.3 (strongest since May 2022). UK Composite PMI 48.5 (13-month low). Gold at 4,523 continues its controlled -19% correction from the 5,586 Iran-war ATH. AUDUSD failed the bearish call as USD weakness from Moody's provided unexpected AUD support. US markets closed Monday 26 May (Memorial Day); FOMC Minutes Tuesday 27 May is the week's key event.

TOP CONVICTION TRADES

#1 NAS100 LONG

ENTRY	TARGET	STOP
29,100-29,250	29,900	28,950

NVDA delivered the dominant catalyst; year high 29,679 is 197 points away. US Manufacturing PMI 55.3 (4-year high) confirms semiconductor demand. FOMC Minutes Tuesday is the gating risk — buy any dip into 29,100-29,250 on hawkish knee-jerk. Trailing stop on existing position raised to 29,100. Risk-reward 1:2.7 from mid-entry. Memorial Day closure Monday reduces gap risk.

#2 XAUUSD SHORT

ENTRY	TARGET	STOP
4,530-4,560	4,400	4,610

Broken support 4,635-4,650 confirmed as firm resistance. Iran ceasefire intact, deflating geopolitical premium. Higher real yields headwind. FOMC Minutes Tuesday: hawkish language accelerates the target. May 12 false breakout above 4,765 sealed the bearish structure. Risk-reward 1:2.7 from 4,530 entry to 4,400 target vs 4,610 stop.

#3 GER40 SHORT

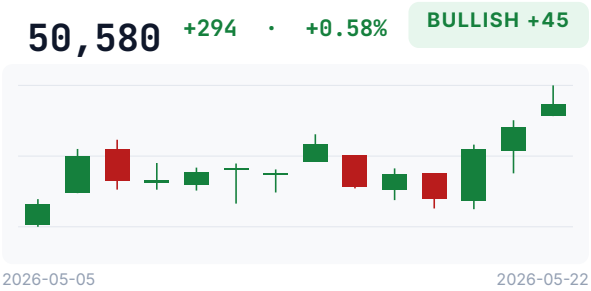

ENTRY	TARGET	STOP
25,300-25,400	24,889	25,530

Fade extreme 5.7% five-session rally into Eurozone recessionary PMI (47.5, 29-month low). GER40 within 360 points of year high 25,508. ECB June 11 live for hike into a contracting economy. Stop tight above year high — confirmed close above 25,508 cancels short thesis. Lower conviction than Trades 1 and 2 — size at 50% of standard risk.

Price action: US30 confirmed breakout above prior year high 50,512 (April), printing new year high 50,830 intraday Friday. Clean recovery from May 19 low 49,245 following Moody's absorption. Friday breadth led by Merck, Salesforce, Cisco; NVDA -1.86% (post-earnings rotation). Fundamentals: US Manufacturing PMI 55.3 (4-year high). FOMC hold intact. NVDA earnings resolved the dominant catalyst — no comparable single event in near-term calendar. Outlook: BULLISH. Buy pullbacks 50,300-50,450 stop 50,100 target 51,000. Year high 50,830 now key support level. FOMC Minutes Tuesday is the gating risk event.

Price action: Classic buy-the-dip around NVDA earnings. Pre-earnings dip to 28,567 (May 19). Post-NVDA blowout recovery to 29,482. Year high 29,679 is 197 points away and within one strong session. Fundamentals: NVDA Q1 FY2027 $81.6B +85% YoY resolves the major near-term catalyst. US Manufacturing PMI 55.3 (4-year high). FOMC hold = valuation goldilocks. Outlook: BULLISH. Buy dips 29,100-29,250 stop 28,950 target 29,900. Trailing stop on existing position raised to 29,100. FOMC Minutes Tuesday is the gating risk — any dovish nuance = ATH break catalyst; hawkish = buy-the-dip below 29,100.

Price action: GER40 surged +5.7% from May 18 low 23,797 to current 25,147 in five sessions — the strongest move of the 7-instrument basket. Eurozone Composite PMI 47.5 (29-month low, May 23) produced zero durable selloff; global risk-on overwhelmed regional fundamentals. Trade 3 conditional exit triggered per PMI rule at 24,889. Subsequent gap to 25,181 Sunday missed. Fundamentals: ECB June 11 live for hike into contracting economy = stagflation risk. Outlook: NEUTRAL-BEARISH. Fade rallies 25,300-25,400 stop 25,530 target 24,889. Year high 25,508 caps the thesis — confirmed close above cancels short bias.

Price action: Turbulent fortnight. Peak 0.7277 (May 6) to intraday break below 0.7080 (May 20 low 0.7088). Floor held; recovery to 0.7164. NEUTRAL-BEARISH call was WRONG — Moody's USD weakness was the dominant driver, not AUD-specific weakness. Fundamentals: RBA at 4.35% (three hikes). USD fiscal premium from Moody's provided unexpected AUD support. Eurozone/UK PMI weakness adds global growth concern overlay. Outlook: NEUTRAL. Range trade 0.7100-0.7200. Buy 0.7120-0.7135 stop 0.7080 target 0.7200. Sell 0.7200-0.7220 stop 0.7240 target 0.7130. FOMC Minutes is the binary catalyst.

Price action: Recovered +1.8% from May 18 low 1.8302 to current 1.8631. NEUTRAL PARTIALLY correct — move was large, not range-bound. Approaching resistance 1.8638-1.8676. Fundamentals: UK Composite PMI 48.5 (13-month low) = GBP-negative. BoC June 4 = CAD binary catalyst (dovish cut = GBPCAD rally; hawkish hold = CAD bid). Oil stabilization above $90-95 keeps CAD structurally bid. Outlook: NEUTRAL-BEARISH. Sell rallies 1.8650-1.8680 stop 1.8720 target 1.8450. BoC June 4 is the gating catalyst.

Price action: Silver crashed from May 13 high 88.89 to May 19 low 73.79 (-17%). Stabilized 74-77 zone. NEUTRAL-BEARISH bias was PARTIALLY correct — the bearish direction was right from peak but the net week move was flat (+0.46%). Fundamentals: Tracks gold as primary driver. Eurozone PMI 47.5 = European industrial demand pressure. US Manufacturing PMI 55.3 = partial offset. Broken support 80.61 now firm resistance. Outlook: NEUTRAL-BEARISH. Sell rallies 78.00-78.50 stop 79.50 target 74.83. Below 73.79 targets 72.50. Reclaim of 80.61 on weekly close would flip to NEUTRAL.

Price action: Controlled correction from Iran-war ATH 5,586 continues (-19%). May 12 false breakout above 4,765 confirmed bearish structure. Each rally attempt capped: broken support 4,635-4,650 acting as firm resistance. May 20 low 4,465 is the key floor. SHORT entry zone 4,530-4,560 clipped at May 21 high 4,540. Fundamentals: Iran ceasefire intact, geopolitical premium deflating. FOMC hold = higher real yields = headwind. May 12 false ATH breakout sealed the bearish structure. Outlook: BEARISH. Hold SHORT stop 4,610 target 4,400. Below 4,465 = acceleration. FOMC Minutes Tuesday is the gating catalyst.

RISK SCENARIOS

Hawkish FOMC Minutes (Tue 27 May)

30%

USD bid, NAS100 -2 to -3%, XAUUSD break below 4,465 toward 4,400, AUDUSD retests 0.7080 floor. US Manufacturing PMI 55.3 gives the Fed cover to hold firm and push back on cuts. This is the dominant near-term risk for all equity LONG positions.

Eurozone Recession Deepening

35%

PMI 47.5 confirmed by activity data. ECB June 11 hike into contraction = stagflation. GER40 -3 to -5%, EUR -1%, spillover to AUDUSD and global growth proxies. Catalysts: German retail sales, Eurozone IP data, ECB pre-meeting speakers.

Iran Ceasefire Breakdown

10-15%

Gold +4 to +6%, oil +10 to +15%, equities -2 to -4% globally. Strait of Hormuz disruption or new retaliatory strikes. Stops out NAS100 and US30 LONG trades. Probability diminished from prior weeks but magnitude remains extreme.

NAS100 Year High Rejection — Double Top

20%

Failure at 29,679 year high with reversal candle (long upper wick, high volume) would form a double top from the May 14 high. Confirmed daily close below 29,100 = -500 to -1,000 points downside risk. Key stop level for Trade 1 at 28,950.

Hot US PCE Print (30 May, above 3.5% YoY)

25%

Removes any residual Fed cut expectations for 2026. USD-positive, gold -1 to -2%, equities -1 to -2%, AUDUSD -0.5 to -1%. US Manufacturing PMI showing input cost acceleration is a leading indicator for this scenario. Would accelerate XAUUSD SHORT target.
